Lucien W. Davis, ex-postmaster at Warfield, this State, was found dead, hanging on a paling fence on the east side of Tug River, near his home. No one can surmise the cause.

Gov. Beckham has issued an executive order preparatory to the formal opening of the Confederate Home. The order states that the provisions of the law have been complied with and that the State appropriation for the Home is now effective.

John Younger, the former bandit, committed suicide in his room in St. Paul. The deed is attributed to despondency over ill health and over the fact that as a paroled prisoner he could not marry a lady, who it is said, reciprocated his affections. He and his brother were at odds. He was 54.

The Railroad Commission of Kentucky forwarded to the Interstate Commerce Commission a complaint against the alleged consolidation of railroad lines in Kentucky. Chairman McChord was informed that the commission would make an investigation upon the receipt of a complaint in writing from the Kentucky board.

Claude O'Brien had an interview in the Louisville jail with his brother, John, who arrived from Memphis. The young burglar was visibly affected, and repeated that he did not fire a shot in the Chion home at Lexington. His admission of being present, however, makes him equally guilty of murder in the eyes of the law.

Judge Parker, of Lexington, has made no call yet for a special grand jury to indict Whitney and O'Brien, the murderers of Mr. A. B. Chion. It is probable that he will allow the case to rest until the regular term of court. Chief of Police Reagan, of Lexington, says O'Brien's story that Mr. Chion was killed by his son is altogether improbable. LATER.—Judge Parker has ordered a special grand jury to convene to-morrow.

William C. Turner shot and killed Albert Hamilton, of Pittsburg, and W. J. Mallard in the office of the law firm of Cantoe, Adams & McIntyre, New York City, and then committed suicide. Turner was at one time treasurer of the Climax Bottling Company, in which the other two men were interested, and the three met to effect a settlement growing out of the alleged defalcation on the part of Turner.

X

DEMOCRATIC PARTY.
This is the way to vote the Straight Democratic Ticket.

For Congress,

G. G. GILBERT

Of Shelby.

WE trust that Hon. G. G. Gilbert's four speeches in this county this week will stir up the democrats and cause them to go to work at once. The election is just two weeks off to-day and comparatively nothing has been done toward effecting an organization by which the vote may be gotten out. The republicans would have us believe that there is apathy in their ranks, but they are a sly set and are doubtless putting in telling lies while democrats sleep. Lincoln county should give a good democratic majority this time and it behooves democrats to girdle on their armor and see that she does so. Mr. Sumrall, the republican nominee, is a nice, clever gentleman, but Mr. Gilbert badly outclasses him on every point, to say nothing about his advantage of four years' experience in Congress. There is every reason why the latter should be elected and we confidently believe he will be, but to make his election absolutely certain it will be necessary for democrats to not only vote, but to see that their neighbors and their neighbor's neighbors do likewise.

THE following pretty story is sent from Memphis: "It is announced that Miss Minnie Williams, a prominent young woman of St. Louis, and Herbert L. Hainline, of this city, will be married Oct. 22. The marriage will be the culmination of a romantic incident, which occurred here last Christmas, when the steamer, Sun, burned to the water's edge. Miss Williams was a passenger, and, leaping into the river, was battling unsuccessfully with the current when she was rescued by the prospective bridegroom."

IN an interview President Mitchell, of the Mine Workers' Association, gave J. P. Morgan credit for an endeavor to settle the coal strike ever since his return from Europe. He said the financier had been "fair and reasonable." The operators are said to have determined to increase the cost of coal by fifty cents a ton at the mines. The sum of fifteen cents on a ton is expected to go to the miners as an increase in wages.

MARRIED schoolmarms are no longer employed by the school board of Salt Lake City, which declares that a married woman's first duty is to her husband. If, however, as may readily happen in Salt Lake City, a married woman has but one-tenth of a husband, the remaining nine tenths being claimed by other ladies—one can see that after all she might have some time for teaching school.

IT'S all right now. Commissioner of Internal Revenue Yerkes has consented to make several speeches for the Kentucky roads during the next two weeks. He will speak in the Third, Sixth and Ninth districts. What have the republicans of the Eighth district done that they should be given the go-by by the distinguished gentleman?

H. S. IRWIN, representative from the Louisville district, and republican nominee to succeed himself, denounces as a lie the report that he went to sleep in Congress. He might have added that Puddin' Head Deboe had done enough sleeping while he was in the Senate for the whole republican party.

JUDGE JAMES D. BLACK, of Bourbonville, is making some splendid speeches for democratic nominees in the close districts. The judge is one of those dyed-in-the wool democrats who can be depended upon at all times to battle for democracy.

It now seems quite sure that a bill will be introduced in the next session of congress to reduce or altogether remove the protective duties on a number of staple articles of import, including wool, hides, coal, flax, hemp and rice. The New York Evening Post has addressed a circular question to the senators and representatives in the present congress, asking whether they will vote for a reduction of duties in favor of commodities the production of which is controlled by monopolies or trusts. While the democrats have answered "Yes," of course, only 27 republicans have answered at all, and of these 13 have also answered "Yes." This indicates the tendency for tariff revision not only among the people at large but in the heart of the republican party. Enough has been witnessed in Iowa and Massachusetts to show that the republicans are hopelessly divided on this great question.

AN interesting operation is to be performed in Trenton, N. J. A boy of three months has a head so big and heavy that he can't sit down and the surgeons are going to try to reduce the swelling. The operation for "big head" ought to grow as common as that for appendicitis, as a great many more people have it.

WE deeply sympathize with Mr. John H. Grimes, city editor of the Harrodsburg Democrat, in the loss of his wife, whose death occurred while she was in Cincinnati.

POLITICAL.

V. K. (Bud) Logan has announced for circuit clerk of Pulaski. Judge Deering is improved, but his physicians say he will not be able to take part in the campaign.

Hill has vetoed Coler's proposed speech making tour because of his repudiation of the coal plank of the platform.

Negro republicans at Memphis, disgusted with the way the white republicans there have treated them, threaten to bolt.

The republicans have nominated no candidate for Congress in the Fourth district and Dave Smith will have smooth sailing for once.

W. H. Applegate, chairman of the democratic committee of Lexington and Fayette, has not certified to nominations and can not be found.

The Hon. G. Allison Holland, of Henry county, has withdrawn from the race for the democratic nomination for representative in the Legislature.

In a speech opening the republican campaign in Connecticut, Senator Beveridge, of Indiana, pledged the Administration to purge the trusts of the evils which are not being removed by natural causes.

Earl Roberts has practically accepted the invitation of Gen. Corbin, Young and Wood to visit the United States. He expects to come in December, 1903, and may come in time to see the International yacht races.

Both democrats and republicans profess satisfaction over the registration in New York City and State, and each side claims the victory in the coming election. Indifference has prevailed among the voters up to this time.

If, after the coal strike negotiations, there is anyone to still assert that Theodore Roosevelt doesn't know his business as a politician, it only proves that a surgical operation is necessary to get an idea into some people's heads.—Louisville Times.

Col. Jere Baxter and William Stewart were nominated for the State Senate by the democrats in Davidson county, Tenn. The platform demands that the Nashville terminal companies give the Tennessee Central equal facilities, and declares in favor of municipal ownership of all public utilities.

Capt. John C. Capers, United States district attorney in South Carolina and republican national committeeman, is opposed to the strict "Lily White" idea. He states that there is no good reason why the republican party in the South should be wholly white and that there is every reason why it should not be wholly black.

Secretary of State Hill has forwarded to county clerks of the State the certificates of the nominations of candidates to be voted for in November. Several candidates, including P. H. Darby, republican nominee for appellate judge, and C. H. Linn and Leslie T. Applegate, republican nominees for Congress, failed to file certificates with the secretary of State. Secretary Hill thinks this provision of the law is not mandatory, but says it will depend on the county clerks as to whether these names get on the ballots.

Harry M. Glavan has resigned as editor of the Pineville Herald. In his valedictory he says that he hopes to see Pineville "appreciate her home paper, and not send all her job work to London, where they print a hundred postal cards for a dollar, the printer furnishing the stock."

The corner stone of the men's new industrial building at Berea College, was laid Friday in the presence of one of the largest crowds ever gathered together in Madison county. Addresses were made by Julian Ralph, the author; Supt. Boone and Dr. Thayer, of Cincinnati; Dr. Barton and Robert T. Lincoln, of Chicago.

A Way To Happiness.

Find out as early as possible what you can best do and do it with all your might.

Cultivate a philosophical vein of thought. If you have not what you like, like what you have until you can alter your environment.

Do not waste your vitality in hating your life; find something in it which is worth liking and enjoying while you keep steadily at work to make it what you desire. Be happy every day over something, for the brain is a thing of habit, and you can not teach it to be happy in a moment, if you allow it to be miserable for years.

Make yourself worthy of true friendship and lasting respect and worthy love, and, if any of these emotions seem to prove ephemeral, remember they were not the realabilities—the real ones will come to you, since you are worthy.

Acquire all the knowledge and accomplishments possible, and enter into studies and sports with all your energies. They help to round life out, and to keep the mind fed with a varied diet, while they open new doors of pleasure and enjoyment.

Form a habit of trying to do some little act to add to the comfort and pleasure of some living thing, man or beast—every day of your life. If you do not more than feed a starving cat, speak kindly to a lost dog, or loose the cruel check of a misused horse, you have traveled a step toward happiness and have not lived the day in vain.

CHURCH MATTERS.

Rev. Neander Woods was installed as pastor of the Second Presbyterian church of Louisville.

Rev. R. R. Noel has closed a meeting of 11 days at Athensville, Clark county, with 22 additions.

A convention of the missionaries of the Methodist Episcopal church will be held in Cleveland this week.

The Rev. Father Fabreback, pastor of a Catholic church at Owensboro, threatens to sue members of his congregation who refuse to pay pew rent and other church dues.

NOTHING in late years so eloquent and appropriate has been spoken upon a similar occasion in all the South as the address of Judge M. C. Sandley, of Stanford, at the unveiling of the Perryville Confederate monument, says the Somerset Journal.

THE meeting of the Christian churches of Lincoln county at Kingsville Saturday was a most enjoyable and interesting one. The good people of that place literally "put the big pot in the little one" in their effort to entertain their guests and everybody had a good time.

THIRTY dollars in gold to the best quartette. H. J. McRoberts, the gent's furnishing man of Stanford, and Mark Hardin, proprietor of the St. Asaph Hotel, have each added a special prize of $5 to the quartette prize, making $30 to be given to the quartette and $20 to the soloist.

THERE is but one king of monologues, Tom McIntosh, and he is with Low Tignor's Big Colored Minstrels this season. He amuses without vulgarity, his witty sayings being on timely subjects. He has put all others out of business.—Atlanta Constitution. At Walton's Opera House to-night.

MRS. A. D. REID, who gave a Delsarte entertainment to a crowded house here several weeks ago, is preparing to give a similar one in Lancaster next Thursday night, in which the best talent of that place will take part. Mrs. Reid is a success in this line, as every one who saw her entertainment here will testify and we cheerfully commend her to the good people of Lancaster.

SPEAKING.—Congressman G. G. Gilbert will speak at Crab Orchard Tuesday, Oct. 21, at Ottenheim, Wednesday, Oct. 22, at Waynesburg, Thursday, Oct. 23. All of these appointments will be at 1 o'clock. He will speak at the court-house here at 7 o'clock Thursday night, Oct. 23. Hon. R. C. Warren will accompany Mr. Gilbert in this county and will also speak. Mr. Gilbert cordially invites his opponent, Mr. Sumrall, to meet him at his appointments.

CURTIS.—Mr. Monroe Curtis died at his home on the Danville pike and was buried in Buffalo Cemetery Friday afternoon, after services at the home by Eld. J. G. Livingston and prayer at the grave by Eld. Joseph Ballou. Mr. Curtis was 88 years old and had been a member of the Cumberland Presbyterian church for 70 years. He was an elder for a long time. He had been in feeble health and became blind about a year ago. That fearful affliction brought not a murmur from him but he accepted it believing that "He doeth all things well." Mr. Curtis was a splendid citizen and his home was always a hospitable one, where his many friends loved to gather. He will be missed by many but none would call him back from the land that is fairer than day. A good wife, not many years his junior, and a number of children survive Mr. Curtis and in their loss they have universal sympathy. He was a kind and loving husband and father and in his taking away has sent pangs to many hearts. It was Mr. Curtis' request that Eld. Livingston preach his funeral and the latter's admiration for the old gentleman made it a most difficult task for him.

HON. G. G. GILBERT.

Who speaks at Crab Orchard this afternoon in the interest of his race for Congress. See his list of appointments in this county elsewhere in this issue.

PISTOL DUEL AT PAINT LICK.—In a fight between J. C. Siler, proprietor of the Veranda Hotel at Paint Lick, and Dr. C. Edwin Poyntz, a prominent young physician, of that place last night, each was shot three times. Mr. Siler caught a bullet in the ear, hip and groin, while Dr. Poyntz was shot just below the heart and had both arms broken. The trouble, it is said, arose over Poyntz' kicking on Mr. Siler's hotel fare. They met and after a few sharp words began shooting. A message this morning states that Dr. Poyntz died last night and that the chances are against Siler's recovery.

ROBBED AND LEFT FOR DEAD.—Mr. Charles H. VanArsdale, who lives on the John D. Carpenter farm in the West End, was called from his house by two men last night and knocked down and robbed of $40. The old gentleman was struck a fearful blow with a club and it is supposed that the scoundrels left him for dead. Sheriff Baughman telephoned for bloodhounds, but had not found the guilty parties up to the hour of going to press. The bloodhounds trailed to a tenant house on the place, but Sheriff Baughman could not gather enough evidence to arrest the tenant. Mr. VanArsdale had had some trouble with the man to whose house the dogs trailed. Sheriff Baughman and County Attorney Helm were up all night in search of the guilty parties. At 8 o'clock this morning Mr. VanArsdale was alive, but it is feared that he can not survive the shock.
